Questions for Reflection and Discussion

1 Corinthians 12:4-11, 14:1-5

Who has a gift?

What are our gifts for?

What if I'd rather have a different gift?

How do I know what my gifts are?

What did the One do who could have any gift?

1. What gifts do you believe that you have?
2. If you need help discerning your giftedness, ask yourself, "What can I do that I don't understand why other people can't do it?"
3. How can you use your gifts to better the world?
4. How could you use your gifts at church? In your Life Group?
5. What is it that you struggle to do but you've noticed other people can do easily?
6. Do you tend to feel more grateful when other people can do what you can't, more jealous, or something else?
7. Whose giftedness can easily be overlooked? To whom do you need to show appreciation for their giftedness?
