Jesus' understanding of Himself:

What His self-understanding led Him to do:

Why we need it:

Questions for Reflection and Discussion

John 13:1-11

1. If you knew you were spending your final night with both those closest to you and the one who would betray you, what would you do? Why?
2. What surprises you about how Jesus began His final evening with His disciples?
3. What does Jesus' divine understanding of Himself coupled with His servant behavior teach us about God, leadership, and relationships?
4. Have you encountered a leader who seemed more concerned about those on the team than him or herself? What effect did it have on you?
5. When have you seen a leader care more about him or herself than those on the team? What effect did that have on you? What effect do you believe it had on the leader?
6. How do Jesus' efforts on our behalf free us to focus on those around us more than ourselves? When have you experienced this?
